

VESSEL / LARGE CETACEAN COLLISION

Report form

Collisions between vessels and large cetaceans are one of the main causes of mortality for fin whales and sperm whales in the Mediterranean. Since 1999, the Pelagos Sanctuary and several shipowners have been working in collaboration to better understand this phenomenon and to develop solutions to limit the risks. Shipowners, port authorities, pleasure boaters and other contributors to vessel traffic – your contribution is precious. If your vessel collides with a cetacean or if you witness an accident:
